

ONE SIMPLE ACT

Many Great Results

The Kodiak College in partnership with the University of Alaska Foundation are hosting a “Making a Will” seminar and you are invited!

Please consider joining us for a “Making a Will” seminar. The event is free, but registration is required.

“Making a Will”

April 29

Presented by Karl A. Kaufman, J.D., L.L.M.
Kodiak Public Library
multi-use room
6:30-8:00 pm

Registration

Email or call Harry W. Need at the University of Alaska Foundation: hwneed@alaska.edu; 907.786.4840

PRESENTER: Karl focuses his practice on Estate Planning, Tax-Exempt Organizations, Federal Taxation, and Alaska Native Law. Karl received his law degree from the University of Oregon (Order of the Coif, 2007) and his Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University (2010), where he was a graduate editor of the Tax Law Review a Wilf Tax Scholar.

Born and raised in Alaska, Karl left the state to attend law school. After receiving his law degree, Karl clerked for the Oregon Court of Appeals and worked at a big firm in a big city somewhere. He has also worked the Alaska Railroad and fished the Yukon River.

Simply Great Lawyers.

